Patrik Gilli appointed as Bellevue Group's Chief Financial Officer

Patrik Gilli has been appointed as Bellevue Group's new Chief Financial Officer by the Board of Directors, effective immediately. He will continue to perform his current role as CFO of Bank am Bellevue until the closing of the sale of the bank as announced earlier. Michael Hutter, the Group's CFO ad interim since March 2019, will assume a new key position in which he will continue to support the Group.

Patrik Gilli is a Swiss Certified Accountant and has many years of experience in the financial industry. Prior to joining Bank am Bellevue, he worked in Zurich as the CFO of Rothschild Trust for six years and as Deputy CFO of Rothschild Bank for three years. Since early 2019 Patrik Gilli has acted as CFO of Bank am Bellevue and he has played a key role in the bank's successful sale over the past few months. He will continue to oversee this transaction as CFO of Bank am Bellevue to facilitate a smooth transition process.

André Rüegg, CEO of Bellevue Group, on the change in the Group Executive Board: "Patrik Gilli is an experienced and highly qualified financial expert who will help to shape Bellevue Group's development as a boutique for innovative investment solutions. I thank Michael Hutter on behalf of the entire board for his support and am pleased that we can continue to rely on his experience and expertise."
